Island Cottage

Island Cottage Polperro is a 16th Century 2 storey, luxury cottage apartment, located just a few feet from the entrance to the harbour of Polperro, with panoramic beach, sea and harbour views.

Polperro remains a working fishing harbour, and most days you will see boats arrive with their catch.

Island Cottage is located on the ground and first floor of the historic Island House. Built in 1603, Island House was first used as a defence look-out, and later as the Customs House during the smuggling years.

Access to Island Cottage is from The Warren, part of the South West walk, and is situated just 2 minutes walk from the main part of the village, with its variety of shops, pubs and restaurants.

The area is peaceful and traffic-free, therefore the only sound you will hear is the sea.

This luxury cottage sleeps 2 guests in a beautifully furnished bedroom, with a well equipped kitchen, dining area, open plan bathroom and a lounge with log fire.

Island Cottage is a delightful romantic hide-away, perfect for a honeymoon, romantic break or special occasion.

"We enjoyed a very relaxing week in Island Cottage for our honeymoon - a perfect place to begin life as Mr & Mrs"
Emma and Richard

"Everything a guest could wish for, for a perfect holiday. A lot of thought has obviously gone into it and this must make it the best cottage in Polperro"
Steve and Rachel

"Island Cottage is easily the best cottage we've ever stayed in. We'll definitely return". P&J

"We couldn't have wished for a better location and accommodation". Sue and John
