Lily House

Lily House Polperro is an exquisite Grade II Listed, 19th century stone cottage nestling in the heart of the ancient, working fishing village of Polperro, Cornwall, an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

This detached luxury cottage has been recently renovated to the highest standard, and sleeps 8 guests in 4 fabulous bedrooms.

The cottage has onsite parking for 3-4 cars. This perfect location in the centre of the village is ideal to explore the harbour, just a short level walk away, and the many restaurants, pubs, shops, galleries and museum. For the more energetic, the most amazing cliff-top walks can be found within just a few minutes.

Polperro is the perfect all-year-round location. With a superb, mild climate, there is so much to see and do. Easily accessible by road, rail, and airports at Newquay, Plymouth and Exeter International.

Lily House was built in 1836, is Grade II Listed, and has been completely renovated in recent years to make a stunning Cornish holiday cottage offering luxury accommodation.

The cottage has 4 luxury bedrooms, 2 twins & 2 doubles, and 2 bathrooms, one of which is en-suite. The twin rooms have doors that lead out on to the wisteria-clad, south-facing balcony.

All bedrooms are finished with the finest linens and fabrics to make your perfect home-from-home.

The close proximity of the cottage to all the village amenities, along with on-site parking and enclosed garden make this a perfect getaway for holidays or short breaks, for family or friends at any time of the year.
